

Letter to the Editor – Thank you

When my mother-in-law took my dog for a walk recently, she dropped her car keys and despite searching she could not find them. The next morning a gentleman brought the keys to our house, my son answered the door. We do not know who this Good Samaritan was and would like to make sure that he knows how much we appreciate him returning the keys to us.

Belinda McCrudden